Hello everyone! I'm Ichijou Lemon, pleased to meet you all. Thank you very much for buying this manga! This is my first manga compilation containing five of my works... It's the fruit of my hard labor, so I am very happy that I managed to finish it. These five oneshots were all based on what I like the most, so I really enjoyed drawing them. I especially like "Please Kiss Me." The two scenes that were the most memorable to me were the bike riding scene and the slap-on-the face scene. I really love student relationships, like when two main characters are best friends, or lovey-dovey high school student stories.. and also relationships between upper and lower classmen! I really do like drawing about love between students, so most of these works are stories within the school (laugh). Ah, and living together! I like that kind of story too.. Ah, but if I get the chance, I want to draw the main character wearing an apron... It would be fun (laugh). But drawing things I like really makes me happy, and there'll be a lot more to come in the future! Suits are also one of my favorites, so I want to draw businessmen too (laugh).

That all for now, let's meet again someday!

Special Thanks
Thank you to all the readers who have gotten up to here!
And also to my editors K-sama, Y-sama!
And to my supporting friends and family, thank you all!

thank you !!
